

Interview Questions

Dear America:

A Letter of Comfort & Hope to a Grieving Nation

1. You wrote Dear America in the weeks after September 11, 2001. Did you know someone involved in the Attacks on America that day?
2. You tell your own story of grief, writing about your brother, Fred, who was hit by a drunk driver while riding his Harley Davidson and was killed. Yet you still ride a motorcycle yourself.
3. You recently experienced a motorcycle crash of your own. What happened?.
4. You also lost your Dad to cancer when you were young. You've experienced cancer yourself. Tell us about that.
5. How did these two deaths affect you?
6. You devote chapter 3 to "10 things you've learned about grief." Why?
7. What are some of those "10 things you learned about grief"?
8. Your number 10 is that you tell us to "Plant bulbs." What do you mean by that?
9. In chapter 4 you present the Gospel, the story of the Bible, in 5 statements like a story. Tell us about that.
10. You also devote a chapter of Dear America to Q & A about God, focusing on Christianity, Islam, and the Muslims. Give us an example of the questions you address.
11. You also give some basic information to people about how to read the Bible. Why?
12. Where can people learn more about Dear America and purchase the book?